

The Honorable Michael K. Powell
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Chairman Powell:

I am writing to you today as a current satellite TV subscriber who would like to add my voice of CONCERN to the pending merger of EchoStar and DIRECTV. In my opinion, the combination of these two satellite providers will create a monopoly in the satellite TV business, that will only result in price fixing, bad customer service and most importantly, a lack of choice between the technologies.

By merging, the combined company will be a monopoly that would control 100% of the U.S. satellite TV business thus eliminating any possibility for diversity in programming, consumer selections and good customer service.

In the interest of improving our access to competitive television, I urge you to lend your opposition to this merger.

Sincerely,

Alex Pa
